

The airways are a place for flying safely not conducting business or putting innocent travelers at the risk of another yet potential terrorist attack. There is enough gong on in the air that as a flight attendant we are required to monitor and police. I will personally hold you responsible for passing this bill should I become injured or affected in anyway. I speak for many flight attendant that will endure you are held accountable for such a ludicrous decision. I need to say no more.